Dear Prof. Gao,

Invitation to International Conference on Biomedical Application of Nanomaterials

It is our pleasure to invite you to give an invited talk in the “2nd International Conference on Biomedical Application of Nanomaterials” to be held on 9-12 January 2018 at the City University of Hong Kong.

This four-day conference covers all aspects of biomedical applications of nanomaterials including:

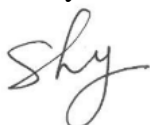

- Nanomaterials for the delivery of drugs, genes, vaccines and proteins
- Functional nanomaterials for phototherapies
- Nanomaterials for biomedical diagnostic and imaging applications
- Fluorescent probes for biological detection
- Self-assembly of nanomaterials for biomedical application
- Nanomaterials for tissue engineering and regenerative medicine
- Nanomaterials for cancer theranostics

Please refer to conference homepage for details:
